

Helping Every Child to Flourish

Thursday 22 March 2018

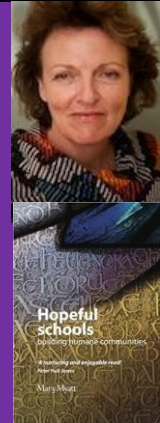

This inspirational and thought-provoking conference will enable school leaders, governors and classroom practitioners to explore a range of strategies to help all our children and young people flourish academically, socially, emotionally, physically and spiritually.

‘Hopeful, Happy and Highly Aspirational’

Mary Myatt, published author and education adviser, will share her wealth of research evidence and vast school experience to develop our thinking on key factors such as:

- Why is hope, happiness and aspiration an entitlement for every child?
- What does a ‘flourishing’ school look like?
- Who is supporting the professionals to flourish?
- What do we mean by high challenge, low threat?
- How can we find the balance between happy schools with the pressures of accountability?

You can't make me! It's not my fault! I don't care!

Carl Smith, Executive Headteacher and Proprietor of Bridge House Independent School will share his wealth of knowledge and expertise in providing outstanding educational provision for vulnerable young people. He will help us reflect on the ways in which we can help pupils achieve in and beyond the classroom. How do we support pupils when they exclaim ‘You can't make me!’ Pupils learn to realise they need focus and aspiration above doing nothing and being a nobody – because they are a somebody, they do matter and they are important!

Workshops Themes

- Staff Wellbeing and supporting vulnerable pupils (Steve Russell – Education Consultant)
- We are a challenge-seeking species – we like doing things which are difficult (Mary Myatt)
- Ben's Shoes – A vision for supporting disadvantaged pupils (Sandra Fawn – Headteacher)
