

The Power of Worship

Tuesday 27 February 2018

Wonderful Collective Worship in Church Schools

- Engaging
- Inspirational
- Transformative
- Access to lots of great ideas and sane advice
- Rooted in Christian faith
- An opportunity to reflect and share
- Simplify planning and evaluation
- Improve participation and ability to lead
- Address issues identified in Section 48
- Come, have fun and be inspired

Helen Matter, Diocesan Schools' Adviser for the Diocese of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich, leads this popular course. It will provide practical and creative ways for planning and leading inspirational collective worship in primary schools. There are useful tips and ideas to share with staff and re-energise your worship programme. The day will also be helpful in planning for Section 48 Inspection.

Time: 09.30 am for 10.00 am – 3.00 pm

Venue: Bishop Grosseteste University, Lincoln, LN1 3DY

Course Fee: £155 per delegate in SLA
