A Diocesan Vision for Church Schools
Church schools serving their communities through excellence, exploration and encouragement within the love of God.

The Diocese of Lincoln is called to faithful worship, confident discipleship and joyful service. Our Church schools bear witness to our belief that every child is made in the image of God and loved by Him. They were founded for the good of their local communities, so that children can be educated through the values and stories of Christianity.

This booklet seeks to facilitate a common understanding of the purpose and aims of Church school education within the Diocese of Lincoln. It is intended to sit comfortably with your own school vision, not to replace it.

The result of the school, parish and Diocese having a single understanding should be one of shared informed prayer and action, to further the needs of community and individuals. It provides an opportunity to strengthen links and to enable engagement with the diocesan vision of faithful worship, confident discipleship and joyful service.

Foreword by the Bishop of Lincoln

Enclosed within this booklet is the vision our Diocesan Board of Education has developed and presented to Diocesan Synod to explain what we might hope to see and work towards in Church Schools across our diocese. It seeks to be explicit about the Board of Education’s philosophy of education and the values that it expects to find in Church of England schools within the diocese.

This booklet has been written to support exploration of those values and to provide church and parish with a vision for church school education, so that we can continue to grow as a diocesan family with a shared understanding of what we mean by a Church of England school.

It is my hope that this work will bring schools and local churches closer together as they explore the same material in their different contexts.

The intention is not for this vision to replace each school’s individual vision but to offer to schools and parishes an over-arching statement of why the diocese is so actively involved in educating young people.

As people of every political persuasion talk of the need for values to be taught in schools, this booklet supports an exploration of what Christianity tells us is important for humanity to be able to live in community.

I commend it to your reading.

+ Christopher Lowson
Bishop of Lincoln
What is a Church school?

A place of education
A place of community
A place of safety
A place where all are served and enabled to serve

Church schools were established by local churches across the country around 200 years ago. Their aim was to educate the children (usually the poor) of their local community. That service to community continues today both in these very same schools and in the new schools that have been established over the years.

1. Our Church schools serve all children regardless of faith, academic ability, race or gender.

Church of England schools are schools with a religious character. They are not faith schools. The Diocese of Lincoln advises schools that admissions policies should not include any criteria based on church attendance or faith.

2. Church of England schools are funded by the state.

Church of England schools receive their funding from the state either via the Local Authority (in the case of maintained schools) or via the Education Funding Agency (in the case of academies). They are subject to the same curriculum regulations, inspection regimes and accountabilities as all other state funded schools. They receive one extra inspection which looks at their Church school status.

3. Church schools’ land is owned by the school, church or diocese.

The footprint of the school (often not including the playing fields) is usually owned in trust by either local trustees (usually vicar and/or church wardens) or the Diocese. This means that ANY building work or alterations have to be approved by the trustees. Use of the school site must be in accordance with the objects of the trust.

4. Church of England schools must have Foundation Governors to ensure that the school is acting within the objects of its trust, i.e. is being a distinctively Christian place of education.

Foundation governors are appointed either by the Parochial Church Council (PCC) or by the Diocesan Board of Education. In Voluntary Controlled (VC) schools Foundation Governors make up no more than 25% of the governing body. In Voluntary Aided (VA) schools they must be in the majority. Most Church schools have the parish priest as an ex-officio governor.

5. Staff at Church of England schools may or may not be people with their own personal Christian faith.

Members of staff in Church of England schools are appointed on their ability to do the job for which they have applied. They should, however, be able to prove that they are able to support and develop the schools Christian distinctiveness. Governing bodies of both VC and VA schools may wish to decide that the post of Headteacher is a reserved post which makes a personal commitment to Christianity an occupational requirement.

6. Church of England schools follow a Religious Education syllabus that includes other world faiths.

Church of England schools recognise that Religious Education is an academic subject. They also recognise that, at its best, it can prepare children for the world in which they will be living. In a Church of England school, RE enables children to explore the views and beliefs of others, teaching tolerance and respect for those whose beliefs and customs differ from their own and helping them to consider their own responses to matters of faith.

7. Church of England Schools are open about their Christian Foundation.

Church of England schools ensure that those Christian values which are at the heart of their existence can be experienced in every area of the school; in policies, relationships, curriculum and environment, and in their uncompromising stance on ensuring the best for every child in their care.
A Diocesan Vision

Church schools serving their communities through excellence, exploration and encouragement within the love of God.

The Diocese of Lincoln is called to faithful worship, confident discipleship and joyful service. Our Church schools bear witness to our belief that every child is made in the image of God and loved by Him. They were founded for the good of their local communities so that children can be educated through the values and stories of Christianity.

Excellence

The Diocese believes that Church schools must provide an opportunity for all pupils and staff to become the best that they can be including, but not limited to, academic excellence.

Christian Roots

Throughout the Bible we are given pictures of how God created humanity to be excellent. Many biblical passages demonstrate excellence as defined through Christian beliefs. Here are some examples you may like to use in school.

Hebrews 12:1

Hebrews tells us to strive for excellence, to ‘run our race with perseverance’ and to encourage each other in our individual races.

Psalm 8

The Psalms tell us that we are wonderfully made, and Genesis says that we are made in God’s image. Both books talk about the excellence of God’s work as creator and of God’s desire that we should live up to his plans for us.

Luke 15:1-7

The parable of the lost sheep tells us that each individual is valued by God, even the troublesome ones who get lost. If each is valued by God, then it is our duty to give each one the very best, to allow each one to flourish.

1 Corinthians 12:27–13:1, 4-8

Real excellence is about growing in love. In these verses St Paul describes the church as the body of Christ. He explains how we can support each other and describes what love is.

In our schools we are called to ensure that each of our pupils is able to achieve their full potential. If each child is made in the image of God then only our best is good enough for them.

Exploration

The Diocese believes that a Church school should be a place where the community can explore safely the things of the world, of humanity, of faith and of God, without fear of judgement, condemnation or ridicule. It should be a place where it is acceptable to enter into and leave discussion, to offer different views, to disagree and to involve people of all ages, cultural backgrounds and faiths.
Christian Roots

There are many examples in the Bible of people being encouraged to question, to learn and to doubt. Here are some suggestions that you may like to explore in school.

Matthew 7:7
Jesus calls on us to ask, search and knock before we will receive.

Luke 24:13-35 - The Road to Emmaus
Disciples are shown discussing, questioning and exploring things with Jesus. The questioning led them to understanding. This, along with the breaking of bread together, helped them to recognise him.

John 20:24-29
Jesus had no problem with Thomas doubting his resurrection and he supported him to face his doubts.

Judges 6:36-40
In this story, Gideon did not take God at his word but doubted and tested God. God was patient and reassuring, not condemnatory.

Proverbs 2:7-9
The Bible here (and in many places) talks of the need for wisdom. Wisdom comes only through exploration of the world around us.

Luke 19:1-10
Zacchaeus, a tax collector, had been so determined to see Jesus that he climbed a tree. Jesus made time to listen to him and as a result Zacchaeus’ life was transformed.

When we travel together (as the disciples did on the road to Emmaus) we can discover far more of the world than we would alone. Any doubts or difficulties that we face do not preclude us from continued exploration of the things of God and of the world.

Encouragement

Church schools should be places that meet the present needs of their communities and encourage them to find fresh ways of thinking and being and acting. This encompasses matters of justice, hope and prophecy.

Christian Roots

The Christian church is the community of believers who live out the Gospel teachings and look towards its promises. We are all strongest when we walk alongside each other in encouragement, and the Bible offers many examples of this as God’s vision for our lives together. Here are some examples that you may like to use in school.

Ecclesiastes 4:9-10
This passage explains why it is so important to work together rather than in isolation. Church schools encourage mutual support in all that we do and for all members of the community, whether strongest or weakest.

Matthew 20:1-16
It is good to be reminded that God’s view of justice may not seem to be the same as ours. This passage enables us to really consider what fairness (justice) may look like.
Luke 4:16-19
This passage challenges us; if Christians are called to be Christ like what is their role for the oppressed, the poor or the captives?

Matthew 21:12-13
This passage asks us to consider if justice is always passive. It asks if there is a place for righteous anger. It asks, do we teach our communities how to be angry?

Micah 6:8
God constantly reminds us of the need to be kind and to be just.

Jeremiah 29:11-13
God gave the prophet Jeremiah a message of hope when His people were in exile and things seemed hopeless. We are reminded that God has good plans for us if we work with Him.

Our schools offer spaces of safety in which all can be encouraged to fulfil their gifts; they are places in which challenge is not feared and all are called to seek justice.

‘Wisdom’ in “Values for life” (Jumping Fish, p.317)

“The Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.” (Luke 19:9)

Content
- Being given a second chance.
- Tax collectors were hated in Jewish society in Jesus’ day, partly because they worked for the Romans and partly because they were known to cheat and keep money for themselves.
- People felt it was a scandal that Jesus had anything to do with Zacchaeus.
- Jesus ministry focused on transforming people burdened by sin, rather than avoiding them.

What’s it about?

- Exploration and Encouragement
  - Zacchaeus wanted to find out about Jesus for himself.
  - Jesus took time to welcome him and encourage him. He changed as a result of meeting Jesus.

- Change and Transformation
  - People can be changed. They can have a new focus.

- Christian Living
  - People who live for God and others.

- Compassion
  - Understanding others, second chances.

A Diocesan Vision for Church Schools

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you. plans to give you hope and a future." (Jeremiah 29:11)

What’s it about?

- In the 7th century BC Jeremiah was called by God to be a prophet. God told him that the nation of Judah would be defeated and taken into exile.
- Jeremiah was unpopular and his life was threatened. But this was not the end. God had plans for a good future for his people.

Encouragement

- There is always hope. God has a plan for us all if we work with Him.
- Love, Compassion
- Trust and their work in Manchester, the youth bus and rock music.
- The life of John Robinson (now with the Church Mission Society), brought up in care, he went to prison but his life was transformed when he discovered God's love for him.
- Emmaus – charity working with the homeless.
- The importance of asking for help and knowing our needs. "Seek me with all your heart" (Jeremiah 29:13).

Key Words/Religious Literacy

- Encouragement
- There is always hope. God has plans for us all. This remains true even when we think there is no hope. There are many stories of people who have experienced this.
- Learn about charities and organisations which help people who feel there is no hope for them.
- The book "Nobody's Child" by John Robinson.

Bible passages in full

All passages are taken from the NRSV translation; please feel free to use the most appropriate translation for your audience.

Hebrews 12:1  Excellence – following an excellent example

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us.

Psalm 8  Excellence – God’s amazing creation and his concern for us

1 O LORD, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens.
2 Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.
3 When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established;
4 what are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them?
5 Yet you have made them a little lower than God, and crowned them with glory and honour.
6 You have given them dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under their feet,
7 all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,
8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.
9 O LORD, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Luke 15:1-7  Excellence – the parable of the lost sheep

Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. 2 And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, ‘This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.’
3 So he told them this parable: ‘Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? 4 When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. 5 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, “Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.” 6 Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.'
1 Corinthians 12:27–13:1, 4-8  Love – the most excellent way

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. 28And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. 24Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? 3Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? 31But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way. 13If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 3If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

13Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, 14and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. 15While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, 16but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. 17And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. 18Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' 19He asked them, 'What things?' They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. 21But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. 22Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, 23and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. 24Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.' 25Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! 26Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?' 27Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. 28As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. 29But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. 30When he had taken his place at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. 31At this point their eyes were opened and they recognized him. Then he vanished out of their sight. 32They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was explaining the scriptures to us?' 33That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. 34They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!' 35Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

John 20:24-29  Exploration – Doubting Thomas

24But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. 25So the other disciples told him, 'We have seen the Lord.' But he said to them, 'Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.' 26A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' 27Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.' 28Thomas answered him, 'My Lord and my God!' 29Jesus said to him, 'Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.'
Judges 6:36-40
Exploration – Gideon and the fleece

36Then Gideon said to God, ‘In order to see whether you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you have said, 37I am going to lay a fleece of wool on the threshing-floor; if there is dew on the fleece alone, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you have said.’ 38And it was so. When he rose early next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water. 39Then Gideon said to God, ‘Do not let your anger burn against me, let me speak one more time; let me, please, make trial with the fleece just once more; let it be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew.’ 40And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground there was dew.

Proverbs 2:6-9
Exploration – God’s wisdom

6For the LORD gives wisdom;
from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;
7he stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
his is a shield to those who walk blamelessly, 8guarding the paths of justice and preserving the way of his faithful ones.
9Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path...

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12
Encouragement – supporting each other

9Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. 10For if they fall, one will lift up the other; but woe to one who is alone and falls and does not have another to help. 11Again, if two lie together, they keep warm; but how can one keep warm alone? 12And though one might prevail against another, two will withstand one. A threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Matthew 20:1-16
Encouragement – God’s justice

‘For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. 2After agreeing with the labourers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. 3When he went out about nine o’clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place; 4and he said to them, “You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.” So they went. 5When he went out again about noon and about three o’clock, he did the same. 6And about five o’clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, “Why are you standing here idle all day?” They said to him, “Because no one has hired us.” He said to them, “You also go into the vineyard.” 8When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, “Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.” 9When those hired about five o’clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. 10Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. 11And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, 12saying, “These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.” 13But he replied to one of them, “Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? 14Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. 15Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?” 16So the last will be first, and the first will be last.’

16 When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, 17 and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

18 “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favour.’

Matthew 21:12-13  Encouragement – Jesus is angry

Then Jesus entered the temple area and drove out all those who were selling and buying in the temple courts, and turned over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves. 13 And he said to them, “It is written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but you are turning it into a den of robbers!”

Micah 6:8  Encouragement – living God’s way

8 He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Jeremiah 29:11-13  Encouragement – hope and a future

11 For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the LORD, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. 12 Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. 13 When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart…

Glossary

The National Society
“The National Society for promoting Religious Education” was established in 1811 to provide schools for poor children. Today the National Society works closely with the wider education division of the Church of England to promote and resource 4700 schools in England and 200 schools in Wales.

DBE – Diocesan Board of Education
DDE – Diocesan Director of Education
DBF – Diocesan Board of Finance
PCC – Parochial Church Council
VC – Voluntary Controlled schools
VA – Voluntary Aided schools

Diocese – a district under the pastoral care of a Bishop
Parish – a small district with its own church and priest

Academy – state-funded schools independent of local authority control
Maintained school – state-funded schools funded through the Local Authority
A School Prayer

Loving God
As we pursue excellence in all that we do
Help us to reach for our full potential.

As we explore your wonderful world,
Give us curiosity, excitement and open minds.

As we encourage those around us,
Help us work together in our homes, classrooms and community.

Living God, in all that we do
Help our school grow into a place of wisdom, hope, and love.

Amen.

A School Creed

This is our school.
Let peace dwell here,
Let the rooms be full of contentment,
Let love abide here,
Love of one another,
Love of mankind,
Love of life itself,
And love of God.
Let us remember
That, as many hands build a house,
So many hearts make a school.

Amen.
Notes
Church Schools serving their communities through excellence, exploration and encouragement within the love of God.

The Diocese of Lincoln is called to faithful worship, confident discipleship and joyful service and our Church Schools bear witness to our belief that every child is made in the image of God and loved by Him. They were founded for the good of their local communities so that children can be educated through the values and stories of Christianity.
